
The Reverend David L. Miller

David L. Miller is the senior pastor of St. Timothy Lutheran Church, Naperville, IL, and a widely recognized speaker, writer and retreat leader. For more than a decade, Miller has been a frequent keynote speaker and retreat leader at events for laity and clergy, across the country, in Lutheran and ecumenical settings. From 2005-2008 Miller served as the Dean of the chapel and the first Cornelsen Director of Spiritual Formation at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago.

From 1999-2005 Reverend Miller was editor of The Lutheran, the magazine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, which is the largest circulation denominational publication in the United States. Ordained in 1980, David served congregations in Nebraska and Kansas before joining The Lutheran as a senior editor in 1987. He has written hundreds of articles and has reported from more than thirty countries around the world, winning numerous awards for feature writing, editing and photography. In 1999 Wartburg seminary granted Miller a doctorate of divinity for his significant contributions to the ELCA and the international Lutheran community.

Reverend Miller is widely recognized as a passionate storyteller who weaves his life experience and that of others into presentations so that they breathe authenticity and speak powerfully to needs and hearts of listeners. He uses his twenty years of global travel as a journalist to illumine his readers and listeners to ways the Spirit labors to give life to the world amid some of the world's thorniest issues. His work is laced with the conviction that we live in the "atmosphere of God, the precinct of epiphany where God labors to give divine life to all."

About the Bertil E. Anderson
Lecture Series

Bertil E. Anderson was senior pastor at First English Lutheran Church from 1980 - 1989. After his death in 1993, gifts and memorials received in his memory were used to establish the lecture series.

The purpose of the series is to encourage excellence in theology and the arts, especially as those disciplines heighten the proclamation of God's Good News.

The series has presented:

1994 - Dr. Walter Bouman, Professor of Systematic Theology, Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio

1995 - Dr. Dennis Anderson, President, Trinity Lutheran Seminary

1996 - Dr. Paul Manz, organist, composer, and teacher

1997 - Dr. Herbert Chilstrom, first bishop of the ELCA, and Rev. Corrine Chilstrom, authors and teachers

1998 - Dr. Marva Dawn, renowned lecturer and author

1999 - Rev. Ronald Englund, Lutheran Pastor who served in London England for 25 years with the Lutheran Church of Saint Anne & Saint Agnes

2000 - Dr. Jerry L. Schmalenberger former President and Professor of Parish Ministry at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkley, CA

2001 - Dr. Paul Harris, Professor Emeritus, Trinity Lutheran Seminary

2002 - Dr. Robert E. Rimbo, Bishop of S.E. Michigan Synod

2003 - David Cherwin, Director of Music at Mt. Olive, Minneapolis, Minneapolis and Susan Cherwin, hymnodist

2004 - Dr. Jerry Schmalenberger, ELCA Global Mission volunteer following retirement

2005 - Kelly Monroe Kuhlberg, Founder, The Harvard Veritas Forum
